This year's Public Health Association of Bangladesh (PHAB) Annual Scientific Conference & AGM 2021 will be held virtually during 3 – 4 September 2021, under the theme “Health Systems Strengthening: Solutions for Tomorrow”. The conference promises to be an innovative and interactive national event filled with the latest in science thinking, policy, and management discussion. It will also provide participants with the unique opportunity to network and build social relationship.

Public Health contributors, Healthcare professionals, researchers, community practitioners and civil society advocates are encouraged to submit their abstract and Organizations or groups are encouraged to submit a proposal for a session of up to 2 hours' duration seminar/symposium or workshop by 5 August 2021.

Submissions are free of charge. While it is not necessary to be a member to submit an abstract and joining the Conference, however PHAB encourages persons to enroll as Member (Life and General) of PHAB. To find out more regarding membership, please visit the PHAB website

A wide range of topics of National interest

We welcome submissions on issues such as COVID-19 overall management, the major areas of Health Systems strengthening, communicating with people, civil society and community engagement, human rights, and other contemporary topics.

Review system

The Scientific Sub-Committee of the PHAB Conference will base their paper selection decisions upon a series of review criteria to be hosted at the PHAB website (click here for website visit). All submitters will receive a notification confirming the status of their proposal by the end of July 2021.

Registration
